

YEAR IN ADVANCE.

Address all communications to THE OUTLOOK PUBLISHING CO., or to JOHN W. HONAKER, Owingsville, Ky.

THURSDAY, JAN. 22, 1903.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

For Circuit Court Clerk.

We are authorized to announce James L. Conner as a candidate for Circuit Clerk of Bath county, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election, November, 1903.

We are authorized to announce James J. Mark as a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk of Bath county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

It is in order for some one to rise and remark that the peaches are killed.

The Chicago special grand jury has voted to return forty indictments against prominent business men on the charge of combining to put up the price of coal. If guilty they richly deserve the law's penalty.

Congress passed a bill putting anthracite coal on the free list and providing for the practically free importation of soft coal, so far as the tariff is concerned, for one year. The action at this late day belongs to the "every little helps class."

A national "Get Coal" convention will meet at Washington City Tuesday, Jan. 27th. A similar convention in anticipation of a coal shortage was held at Detroit last October and well considered resolutions adopted. The coming convention will be important.

HENRY YOUTSEY, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary on conviction of implication in the Goebel murder, was brought from prison before the Franklin county grand jury last week to tell what he would of the case. He was examined for forty hours. The strictest secrecy was enjoined by Judge Cantrill as to what Youtsey told.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR TILLMAN, of South Carolina, a nephew of U. S. Senator Ben Tillman, the pitchfork statesman, plugged his man in Tillmanesque style last week. Tillman meeting N. J. Gonzales, editor of the Columbia State, without warning shot Gonzales through the lungs.

R. N.

tended Co.

day.

Mrs. Pearson Nixon, wife, spent Saturday with Bailey.

Miss Lucy Rogers, of Ringo's Mill, is visiting her aunt Mrs. Matilda Rice.

Lewis Berber sold to Sam Latram 10 60-lb. shoats at $5.75. W. W. Williams sold to Wm. Atchison 15 hogs averaging 125 pounds at $5.60.

Licking Union.

Old Mr. Reed died at his home near Ragland Friday.

Andy Thomas' wife died at her home on Scott's Creek Friday.

THE SICK.—Thomas C. Ragland continues poorly. Charley M. Ham is on the sick list.

John H. Nickell, of Freestone, Rowan county, visited his daughter Mrs. Atta McKinney Saturday night.

A large crowd boarded the little train last Saturday to attend the trial of Aqua and Bert Johnson charged with disturbing public worship. They compromised by paying the cost. The County Attorney was there and also Charley Day, of Morehead.

G. R. Keller, of Carlisle, was here Friday and Saturday in the interest of his lease he holds on J. W. and A. T. Ham's land. He employed Oscar Willison to drill five wells on his lease. Mr. Keller has bought a pumping outfit and a gasoline engine and will commence work next week.

Farmers.

Dr. Evans and son have returned from Ashland.

Mollie Carpenter returned home to Clay, W. Va., this week.

Dr. Carter was vaccinated, a negro having called at his office with smallpox.

Mrs. Kate P. Evans is in very delicate health and has been for the past few weeks.

Lee Craycraft is quite low with stomach trouble. Mrs. John Warren is in very delicate health.

Prof. Morrison, who taught a class of six here in arithmetic this week, has gone to Morehead.

Lucy O. Williams and sister Eliza Maxey were called here by the death of their cousin Dr. Evans' wife. They will spend a few days with their aunt Mrs. K. P. Evans.

Virgie Evans, aged 24 years, wife of Dr. Thomas A. Evans, departed this life Jan. 20.

Roll of Honor of Bethel school for month ending Jan. 16, 1903: Allie Henderson 98; Raymond Williams 98; Morris Williams 98; Albert Botts 97; Henry Clinkenbeard 94 3-5; Matt Hunt 94 2-5; Alma Gillespie 92 2-7; Charlie Whaley 92; Robert Arrasmith 90; Elliott Gilvin 90.

LUCY HARPER, teacher.

Springfield.

Miss Mayme D. Turner has a grippa.

Van Thompson and wife were guests of Mrs. Waller Boyd Thursday.

Prof. Karriek closed his school here with a very nice entertainment.

Misses Blanche and Pearl McClain visited Miss Lida Smaathers Thursday night.

Mrs. John Spratt visited her brother Jessie Morgan, of Plum Lick, Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. O. B. Spratt and W. A. Boyd and Miss Maud Spratt were guests of the Misses Grimes Monday.

Misses Blanche and Pearl McClain and Lida Smaathers and Rev. W. B. Gray were guests of Mrs. O. B. Spratt Friday.

Rev. W. B. Gray delivered his last sermon to his church here Sunday. His people regretted very much to see him leave.

Crooks.

D. S. Nixon is on the sick list.

Joe Adams, of Ezel, was here Saturday.

W. E. Houston, of Louisa, Ky., was here Monday.

Ernie Armstrong, of Olympia, was here Saturday.

J. T. Hovemale visited relatives at Salt Lick Sunday.

Will McCall, of Virginia, was here Thursday on business.

Tom Satterfield and Will Nixon were at Salt Lick Thursday.

S. V. Johnson bought Tom Satterfield's crop of tobacco at 6c.

A Mr. Ramsey, of Winchester, was here Saturday on business.

Mrs. Cole Jackson, of Olympia, visited relatives here Saturday.

D. S. Nixon sold and delivered 18 shoats to R. C. Gatewood at 5c.

Mrs. Charley Reed, is visiting her parents, John Hazelrigg and Bethel.

Michael and wife, visited relative Sunday.

per Prickly Ath.

Johnson Stone is on the sick list.

Several from here attended court at Sterling Monday.

Mrs. Frances Hamilton rented her farm to Almanza Stone.

Stanton Hamilton, of Roe's Run, visited R. L. Stone one day last week.

Coburn and Willie Hamilton sold some shoats to Ewing Conner at 5 1/2c per lb.

George Boyd, of White Oak, visited Perry Goodpaster and wife Sunday night.

Wm. Phelps, wife and son Earl, of Reynoldsville, visited Almanza Stone and wife Friday.

Thomas B. Hamilton, of near Mt. Sterling, visited relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

Daniel Harper and Caleb Ratliff sold some fat hogs to Hendrix & Co. at $5.50 per hundred.

Thomas Barnes, of Peeled Oak, and Mrs. James Shroot, of near Sharpsburg, were visiting at Mrs. Nancy Shroot's last week.

Olympia.

Bige Wells, of Owingsville, was here Sunday.

H. O. Irwin was called to Richmond on business the other day.

Elder Dawson filled an appointment here Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ollie Montjoy is spending the week with friends in Howard's Mill.

W. E. Houston, of Louisa, is spending the week with friends here.

Mrs. T. J. Jackson and M. F. Case were shopping in Owingsville Thursday.

Mrs. Howard VanAntwerp, of Mt. Sterling, spent Saturday with Mrs. D. R. Bishop.

Sam and Oliver Jones, of Owingsville, spent Sunday with their sister Mrs. Robt. Swetnam.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, of Salt Lick, were guests of friends here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Clayton, of Salt Lick, spent Saturday and Sunday with her father J. W. McGlosson.

Born, to Wm. Swarts and wife, a girl. It is thought Bill will get over it, but the doctor says he never will look like anything.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kincaid returned Friday night from Pineville, where they had been spending the holidays with their parents.

The infant child of Willie Moore died the past week. We failed to get it in last week's items. The bereaved parents have our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. McGlothlin, of Salt Lick, fell one day and broke one

Snare Snare.

Nice winter weather for a few days.

Mrs. Granville Turner was on the sick list last week.

Miss Minnie Ralls was a visitor in Mt. Sterling on Friday.

George Nixon, of Abelen, Kan., is visiting his sister Mrs. Jack Scott.

Sam Northeutt and M. E. Henton, of Judy, were here Friday on business.

Mrs. J. M. Hurst and daughter Miss Ella were in Mt. Sterling, shopping on Friday.

Mrs. C. N. Triplett sold to Dr. J. W. Rutherford two meat hogs at $5.50 per hundred.

Misses Lena Howard and Sarah Lou Triplett visited relatives near Mt. Sterling Friday and Saturday.

Dr. J. W. Rutherford, who has been laid up for some weeks with rheumatism and la grippe, is able to be up.

Caleb Utterback closed a five-months' school Friday at Poplar Grove. The spring school will be taught by Miss Fannie Lane.

Mary Grinney, a respected colored woman, has been at the point of death for several days with phoid pneumonia, Dr. Renfre tending physician.

The Gudgell Hill school came very near being destroyed one day last week, caught from a defective by the heroic efforts of V. W. Wagon, who lives near by.

Stoop

Allie, houses in vicinity.

Mrs. W. relatives Thursday.

Bridge, finest hotel by the way.

Prof. T. moved his to Mt. St.

Sid Ha from J. H. ton at 3 1/2.

Armata visited his Fassett St.

J. H. St tobacco t Foley to Breckin ty Wedne greatly on

J. H. S have a put He is going to Play

A

Beginnin stock of f wish to m.

On or abo begin to s until the c

A nice line wint